*****Beware! New IRS Mail Scam *******

Criminals have tried different kinds of phone and email scams posing as the IRS in an attempt to extort money. Many of you have received these emails and phone calls. Generally the scams have been easy to uncover because the IRS initially contacts the taxpayer by letter and follows very strict rules with its enforcement actions. Scammers have caught onto this and are targeting people by mailing or emailing fake notices requiring immediate payment.

These scammers have duplicated the look of the official IRS Mail Notices. Though the P.O. Box is incorrect, the letters come addressed from the cities the IRS has service centers in. To the untrained eye it might appear that the letter is actually from the IRS. Included in this newsletter is a copy of one of these letters.

If you receive any correspondence from the IRS please have one of our Tax Professionals review the notice before you respond.

Sincerely,

Earl M. Salter, EA. #9665      Richard J. Cavish, EA. #27191      Brenan J. Cavish, EA.#117508

should be United States Treasury

Wrong

If you do not agree with the changes

- You may send us your payment immediately to avoid additional interest and penalties. Please write a short explanation telling us why you disagree and enclose it with your payment. If we determine you did not owe this balance, we will process the refund with your next income tax refund or credit it to any future balance due you may have.
- If we do not hear from you within 30 days of the date of this notice, we will assume you agree with the changes we made.

Explanation

The Affordable Care Act (ACA)

- Starting January 2014, you and your family must either have health insurance coverage throughout the year, qualify for an exemption from coverage, or make a payment when you file your 2014 federal income tax return in 2015. Many people already have qualifying health insurance coverage and do not need to do anything more than maintain that coverage in 2014.
- Qualifying coverage includes coverage provided by your employer, health insurance you purchase in the Health Insurance Marketplace, most government-sponsored coverage, and coverage
